

Angela Gamba

Born in Palazzolo sull'Oglio (Brescia - Italy), on August 15, 1970.

Degree in Economics (110/110 Summa cum Laude) from Bocconi University (Milan, 1994).

Professional Experience

- She begins her professional experience in 1994 in London as a financial analyst in the investment banking division of Salomon Brothers.
- Subsequently, and until 2002, she works in private equity/venture capital, primarily in London for Morgan Stanley and Deutsche Bank.
- In 2003 she becomes CFO of ION Trading (London), a privately-held software company, where she executes certain strategic acquisitions and supports the owners in managing the organisation's international expansion.
- In 2007 she moves back to Italy and, since 2010, she manages certain Italian investments in the clean energy sector for a UK private equity fund until divestiture in 2016.
- Since 2016 she is a dedicated single-family officer.
- She has relevant experience as independent director on the board of listed companies (Cobra Automotive, Parmalat and Mediobanca).